Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Stan Knox, a native of South Dakota, has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and devotion which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Stan has worked for the state of South Dakota for many years, holding positions as Mail Clerk, Storekeeper I, Driver License Examiner, Senior Examiner, and his current position as a Training Specialist; and

Whereas, Stan loves reading about old trucks and cars, going to car shows with his 2010 Dodge Challenger RT named Snowball, woodworking, and baking cakes and pies; and,

Whereas, Stan is a devoted father to his daughter, Tara; and,

Whereas, On August 23, 2012, after 34 years of dedicated service to the Department of Public Safety Driver Licensing Program, Stan will retire.

Whereas, Stan plans to travel and camp in his new RV and enjoy retirement to its fullest; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on such a momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Thursday, August 23, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join his family and many friends in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard
